INSTRUCTIONS — READ CAREFULLY

- If you are challenging an order of commitment or a criminal conviction and are filing this petition in the Superior Court, you should file it in the county that made the order.
- If you are challenging the conditions of your confinement and are filing this petition in the Superior Court, you should file it in the county in which you are confined.
- Read the entire form before answering any questions.
- This petition must be clearly handwritten in ink or typed. You should exercise care to make sure all answers are true and correct. Because the petition includes a verification, the making of a statement that you know is false may result in a conviction for perjury.
- Answer all applicable questions in the proper spaces. If you need additional space, add an extra page and indicate that your answer is "continued on additional page."
- If you are filing this petition in the Superior Court, you need file only the original unless local rules require additional copies. Many courts require more copies.
- If you are filing this petition in the Court of Appeal, file the original and four copies.
- If you are filing this petition in the California Supreme Court, file the original and thirteen copies.
- Notify the Clerk of the Court in writing if you change your address after filing your petition.
- In most cases, the law requires service of a copy of the petition on the district attorney, city attorney, or city prosecutor. See Penal Code section 1475 and Government Code section 72193. You may serve the copy by mail.

REGARDING PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

Case No. 140163

PFN: ARS761

CEN: 9310003

This Court having reviewed the Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus filed on March 6, 2007, hereby orders: Petition for writ of habeas corpus is denied. The Petition fails to state a prima facie case for relief. Taking the Petitioner claims in order, (1) the Petitioner fails to provide sufficient and substantiated information regarding the exclusion of the 9mm handgun. Further, from the Court's review of the record, there was no error by the trial court in excluding evidence regarding the 9mm handgun being used in a previous murder. That fact, if it was a fact, would not be dispositive of what occurred on the day of the shooting. Petitioner testified and fully explained his version of the events and why he acted the way he did. If the exclusion was error it was not prejudicial to the outcome of the case; (2) this Court lacks jurisdiction over any rulings by the Appellate Court; (3) there is no basis for Petitioner's claim that he was denied a trial by an impartial jury. The racial make-up of the jury pool or the jury itself does not establish the lack of impartiality of the jury; (4) Petitioner has failed to meet his burden of establishing that his trial or appellate counsel was ineffective. Petitioner has not shown that his counsel's conduct, (trial or appellate), failed to conform to an objective standard of reasonable competence. Petitioner has also failed to demonstrate that this counsel's (trial or appellate) acts or omissions prejudiced the Petitioner; (5) There is no basis for he claim of Prosecutorial misconduct; (6) see #4.
